

Steubenville North Rochester 2010 Promotion

Bring a Friend

Steubenville North Rochester invites youth participants to be an apostle like St. Paul and spread the word to their friends!

- When a registered youth invites a new participant/friend* to attend this year's conference to share their faith and love of Jesus, he/she receives:
 - An exclusive Steubenville North T-Shirt
- For the top three youth 'evangelizers' (registered youth who bring the most new participant/friends to this year's conference):
 - An exclusive Steubenville North T-Shirt signed by the speaker team
 - VIP seating for their group for the main conference sessions
 - The youth and their chaperone receive VIP status including a Backstage Pass allowing them special access to the conference band and speaker team

*New participant/friend is defined as a teen who has never attended a Steubenville conference prior to 2010.

New participant/friends must indicate who invited them to attend the Steubenville North Rochester conference when registering using the Partnership for Youth online registration system.
